We Remember Mama.

Don't think of her as gone away, her journey's just begun; life holds so many facets, this earth is only one. But we remember now in love, your life from start to end; and we're just glad we knew you, as Mama, Grandma and Friend.

A Life Celebrated

On a Thursday, August 1, 1929, a baby girl was born in Barnwell, SC, to Ms. Louise Phoenix and Mr. Jim Smoakes, Jr. She was named Beatrice, which means "blessed; she who makes one happy." Reared in a loving home, she accepted Christ as her Savior at a young age and was baptized into the faith. Beatrice received her education in the local schools of Barnwell.

On July 24, 1948, she was wed to the love of her life, Heyward Frank. Upon moving to Jacksonville, FL, they united with New Redeem Baptist Church, and served God and the church faithfully. They shared life together as one for 46 years, when he passed away on June 15, 1994. Heyward and Beatrice Frank were the proud parents of six children, Alberta, Heyward Jr., Inez, Glenn, Arline and LaTrine.

Sister Frank was employed for many years with Southern Bell Frozen Foods. However, her greatest love after God was family and friends. Affectionately known as "Mama Bea," she was an avid and prolific gardener, and a star cook. Her children and grandchildren will always remember shelling peas, peeling peaches and picking blueberries. Some of Mama Bea's signature dishes include sweet macaroni & cheese, blueberry dooby and peach preserves.

Sister Beatrice Phoenix-Frank was called home by the Master on Palm Sunday, March 25, 2018. "Cares all past, home at last, ever to rejoice." She was preceded in death by her parents, Ms. Louise Phoenix and Mr. Jim Smoakes, Jr.; beloved husband, Dea. Heyward Frank, Sr.; siblings, Alberta Stone, Lorene Carter, John Phoenix and Thomas Phoenix, Sr.

Left to cherish memories and the fragrance of a life well spent are her loving sons, Heyward Frank, Jr., and Glenn E. Frank; devoted daughters, Alberta Frank, Inez Lovely (Henry), Arline Y. Frank and LaTrine R. Frank; honorary son, Winston Brady; grandchildren, Paula M. Lovely, Reginald R. Lovely, and Michelle A. Gist; great grandchildren, Camryn Solomon and Zahria Lovely; siblings, Shirley Shields (Cornelius), Herman Phoenix (Sonya), Mary Douglas, Betty Phoenix, Betty Cox, and Sonny Smoakes; sisters-in-law, Rebecca Frank, Evelyn Frank and Mozelle Dicks; godchildren, Larry Mathis, Jr., Rev. James Hayes, Jr., Rhonda and Tonya, Ashley and Earl McCray Jr.; prayer partner, Doretha Davis; dear friends, Gail Saddique and Addie Quarterman; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
