

You May Miss Me

You may miss me, but I'm still here,
Wanting you to remember me, and hold me dear;
Remember my smile and laughter forever
And be assured that I will leave you never.

You may miss me, but know and believe
I'll be standing in the distance
Giving you time to grieve.

When you think of me
Know I've made my peace with God;
I've joined in Unity with a new flock
And I left with a simple nod.

You may miss me
But when you reminisce about me,
Think about my eternal greatness
For I have been set free.

You may miss me, but know at heart I'm close;
As you did in life, continue to love me
But God loved me most.

Life's Journey

Mr. Bobby Gene Walker was born October 31, 1940, to Mr. and Mrs. Earl and Gertha Lean Edwards Walker in Hawkinsville, GA. He was the first of nine children. Bobby accepted Christ as his personal Savior at an early age.

After the family moved to Jacksonville, Florida, he attended the local schools of Duval County, graduating from New Stanton Senior High School, Class of 1959. Upon graduation, Bobby enlisted in the U.S. Army, served for three years, and was honorably discharged. He became a resident of Paterson, New Jersey, where he found many employment opportunities available to him, including the U. S. Postal Service, and was successfully employed until his retirement.

Bobby Walker was called home to rest on Wednesday, June 22, 2016, after a brief illness. He was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walker.

Left to cherish his legacy is his devoted family; daughter, Minyoun C. Walker, Jamaica, NY; son, Robert "Amir" Walker, Washington, DC; four sisters, Mses. Juanita Anderson, Ethelyn Reynolds, Joann Thomas, all of Jacksonville, FL, and Sarah Powell, Riverdale, GA; four brothers, Willie Walker (Sandra), Terry Walker, Dea. Donell Walker (Leola) and Anthony Walker (Michele), all of Jacksonville, FL; four grandchildren, Quinton B. Walker, Khalila Y. Walker, Ibraheem H. Bell and Aseeyah B. Walker, all of Washington, DC; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many loving friends

Life Is A Journey

*Life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys, different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place, far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker, for some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends, we'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace, together with the Lord.*
