Crossing Over

*Oh, please don't feel guilty, it was just my time to go.
I see you are still feeling sad,
And the tears just seem to flow.
We all come to earth for our lifetime,
And for some it's not many years. I don't want you to keep crying,
You are shedding so many tears.
I haven't really left you even though it may seem so.
I've just gone to my heavenly home; I'm closer to you than you know.
Just believe that when you say my name, I'm standing next to you,
I know you long to see me, there's nothing I can do.
But I'll still send you messages and hope you understand,
That when your time comes to "cross over,"
I'll be there to take your hand.

A Life of Love

On April 30, 1952, on a Springtime day in Jacksonville, FL, a beautiful baby girl was born into a family of Mr. and Mrs. Willie and Ruby Lee Burney Williams, Jr. Her parents named her Faye Lois. She was reared in a loving home of fourteen siblings to play with and to support her as she grew into adulthood. The family attended West Friendship Baptist Church, and Faye, after accepting the salvation of Christ, was baptized into the faith as a child under the pastorate of Rev. Richard Wilson.

She received her formal education in the Duval County Public Schools, namely James Weldon Johnson, and became employed as an assistant in a daycare facility.

Faye was a woman of faith, strength, and grace. She always allowed God to lead, guide, and direct her path. She moved her membership to Mt. Bethel where she faithfully attended and worshipped her Lord and Savior. She was a member of District 6.

She was a true servant of God who loved the Lord and praised Him wherever she was. The Lord called her home on April 2, 2018, the day after Resurrection Day. She was preceded in death by her parents and siblings, Gilford Williams, Ronald James Williams, Willie Williams, III, Akbar Waalee (Alfonza Williams), Annette Powell, and Albert Williams.
