

HUSBAND * FATHER * PASTOR

And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. Therefore, I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them. And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

1 Corinthians 2:9-10 - 9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. 10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit; for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

BISHOP HERBERT CLENTON MOORE - FRIDAY, JULY 24, 2020 AT 11 AM

Life's Journey Bishop Herbert Clenton Moore

Bishop Herbert Clenton Moore was born August 30, 1938, in Washington, DC, the first born to Mr. Thomas Moore and Ms. Mary Frances Harris. A colorful, warm, encouraging, and a man with a great sense of humor, he was the oldest of eleven children. His name means "thirstless success." Truly he was well known throughout the nation for his strength, tenacity and strong faith in God. He was full of wisdom and men and women pleased from his witty intelligence. Although normally reserved and slow to speak, when provoked he could sound the alarm.

Bishop Moore joined the United States Navy at the age of 17. After brief camp, he had several duties prior to being chosen as Instructor with the Defense Race Relations Institute, where he trained military personnel in Key West, FL, and Memphis, TN. This extensive experience later earned him a master's degree in education from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. After two-and-a-half years of service, he retired in 1976.

He addressed the plight of others receiving an education. He encouraged them. He furthered his education, earning a Bachelor of Business Administration from Jones College — awarded Phi Kappa Phi and Omicron Delta Kappa. When the opportunity was afforded, he became a Director at the North Jacksonville Lighthouse Christian School. Mr. Moore was a community member and mentor with the North Florida Ministry Training Institute, received recognition as a volunteer with CPEI, formerly Campus Crusade for Christ City Rescue Mission Community Prayer Ministry and Total Change Outreach Ministry.

In 1984, two significant moments occurred. He was ordained an Elder with Temple Of Light Christian Center, presently known as Temple Of Light Fellowship Ministries. He accepted a position with the State of Florida Department of Labor as Program Administrator in Program Independence and Parents' Fair Share, where he supervised six counties and worked for President William "Bill" Clinton's Commission for the World Opportunity Entrepreneurship Act that was signed into law in August 1990.

With his retirement, Elder Moore received a Tribute in 1993 for Exemplary Service from Mary Finley, Director of the State of Florida Department of Labor. Thanks for being available, his service position was being online. As years he recognized he had a computer in his pocket, he never used the desktop again. It brought great joy to his heart to send out morning inspirational thoughts, shopping, traveling, fishing, traveling and family interactions.

In 2003, he became Senior Pastor of Temple Of Light. In 2001, he was ordained as Bishop under the Spiritual Leadership of Apostle T.C. Maxwell, Faith Deliverance Tabernacle, Inc., Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

His exemplary life as pastor, teacher, mentor and counselor has inspired many to serve the Lord by living a life of integrity. Although mistakes were made, he was a humble man who expressed, receiving forgiveness from the Lord. Often, he would say, "Forgive me for what I remember, do not remember, or judge, overused and misused words." At that moment, someone he fought a good fight until the end of his journey on earth.

He went home to be with the Lord on Thursday, July 16th, 7:15am, at Manor Hospice. He was preceded in death by his father, Thomas Moore; mother, Mary Frances Johnson; and two siblings, Herbert "Art" Brown and Claudine E. Brown.

Bishop Moore wishes to cherish his remarkable life as commemorated and documented with Prophets for Mr. Moore's seven children, Cynthia and Dorene Moore, Kevin James (Samuel), Shikha Samuels (Jada), Steven Samuels, Candice Myers (Dorene and Michael Charlotte Florence), grandchildren, Maricela Moore, Paul Winton, Latrice Oliver (Deborah), Joseph Robinson (Bobby), Ronald Moore (Eric), Jerome Samuels, Janelle and Lloyd Jellie, Dominique Jones, Bernadine Samuels, Stephen P. Jones, Debra N. Jones (Theresa), Lari Moore, Anthony Williams, July Jones, Kaitlyn Jones, Althea Washington, Hanson Samuels II, CJ Anne Washington, Terrence and Parshia Washington, Eric and J.E. Robinson, Jonathan's children, Bishop James Nelson (Eric) and Deacon Ronald Nelson (Charlene), a host of great grandchildren, other relatives, friends, and the Temple Of Light family.
