

A MOTHER'S KISS

*As life is born and death takes it away,
a mother's kiss is a symbol of love
that will forever stay.*

*Just as Pharaoh's army was swallowed deep beneath the Red Sea,
a mother's kiss is a golden treasure
that will always be.*

*A mother's kiss can penetrate your soul
like a soft-spoken word.*

*It can carry a melody
like a beautiful mockingbird.*

*When you think your life
is cluttered with sorrow,
remember a mother's kiss
can brighten your tomorrow.*

*Don't let your mother's departure
get you down.*

*If you have her kiss, she'll forever be around.
A mother's kiss will carve deep into your soul,
which you will forever treasure
and gently hold.*

Just remember the light along with the reflections of her past will seal her memories and kiss into an eternal looking glass.

CHRONICLE OF LIFE

Frankie Lois Sumner's earthly journey began November 18, 1938, in Alma, GA, when she was born to Reverend and Mrs. James N. and Delia V. Farmer Sumner. Her parents nurtured and taught her and her seven siblings a love for God and family. She accepted Christ into her life at an early age, and walked the Christian path throughout her journey.

Frankie graduated from Center High School, Waycross, GA, Class of 1957. Upon moving to Jacksonville, FL, she attended Stanton Vocational School, and graduated as a licensed Cosmetologist. She was a hair dresser at a beauty parlor on State Street in August 1962, and witnessed the Axe Handle Riot first hand. She also was employed as a machine operator for Maxwell House Coffee, retiring in 2002 after three decades of dedicated service.

As a young woman, Frankie met and fell in love with Joseph Willie Webb. They were joined together as one in holy matrimony until they were parted in death. Being a part of a loving, close-knit, Godly family helped Frankie get through this difficult time in her life. Now being the sole breadwinner for her children, God gave her the strength and the help of family to fill the void. As family members migrated from Georgia, they always knew that their cornerstone was Frankie, the Family Matriarch. She always had room for one more, and made sure that a good meal was always available. Her home was a welcome portal for many.

Frankie became a part of St. Paul Missionary Church under the pastorate of Rev. E.E. Taylor, and served faithfully with the Seniors Ministry under the pastorate of Bishop John E. Guns.

This woman of God was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Joseph Willie Webb; parents, Rev. and Mrs. James and Delia Sumner; brothers, James N. Sumner and Rev. Vernis H. Sumner, Sr.; and sisters, Barnell V. Rosier, Evangelist Annie B. Sumner, Gwendolyn S. Scott and Dona E. Moore.

Left to cherish precious memories are sons, Joseph Willie Webb, Jr., Reginald Andre Webb, Sr. (Yvette) and James Franklin Webb; daughter, Shelia Regina Webb; brother, Rev. Freddie B. Sumner (Bettye); grandchildren, Reginald A. Webb, Jr., Ericka A. Webb, Cedric Webb, Demetrius Webb, Lashonda Dowdell, Faith K. Webb and Joseph H.W. Webb; great-grandsons, Taylor Robinson, Arayan Ellis, Treyaun Webb, Asia Webb, Anya Webb, Reginald Webb, Rashad Webb, Jaden Webb and Tristin Webb; brother-in-law, Andrew Scott; sisters-in-law, Louise Christopher, Verdene Webb, Geraldine Sumner and Josephine Webb-Nichols; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
