

Life is But A Stopping Place

Life is but a stopping place,

A pause in what's to be,

To sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys,

Different paths along the way,

We all were meant to learn some things,

But never meant to stay....

Our destination is a place,

For some the journey's quicker,

For some the journey's slow.

And when the journey finally ends,

We'll claim a great reward,

And find an everlasting peace,

Together with the Lord.

The Obituary

“Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. ...for nothing will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.” Rom. 8:35, 39b

Our dear loved one, Alvin Johnson, passed away peacefully on September 15, 2020. Alvin was born on Valentine’s Day, February 14, 1945, to the late Dorothy Mae Camon and the late Grady Johnson in Ray City, GA. During Alvin’s early childhood, he lived with his mother and his Great Aunt Cassie, in Nashville, GA. He also attended the local schools in that city.

Alvin’s mother and younger siblings relocated to Jacksonville, FL in the late 1950’s and he soon joined them not many years thereafter. Alvin took advantage of an employment opportunity as a young adult at St. Regis Paper Company, where he worked for several years. He then relocated to South Hampton, New York where he worked as a chef. He eventually moved back to Jacksonville, FL where he remained until death.

Alvin is survived by 4 brothers and 2 sisters from his mother’s lineage: Burnace (Pam) - Atlanta, GA, Nathaniel, Judge and Andrew; Elaine (Mortimer), and Sarah (Freddie); 1 sister from his father’s lineage: Kathleen Johnson Mayhew; Goddaughter: Tikki Riley; 2 special friends: Stephanie Violenusellis and Shirley Shannon Shingles; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Alvin has always been a very quiet, mile mannered, respectful and gentle individual. He rededicated his life to Christ on September 12, 2020.

Alvin Johnson, You Will Be Missed.
Rest In Peace♥
