

I HAVE A MANSION

I have a mansion in the skies,
Whither Jesus went to prepare,
Nothing is lacking nowise,
And will never need any repair.

Nothing I could do to merit it;
Being redeemed by Christ's blood, I inherit it,
Yes, a house not made with hands
Awaits all who heed God's commands.
On Tuesday he said to me, "Come up higher,"
Out of my struggles, where I often tire;
Out of my poverty into His wealth,
Out of my sickness into pure health.

Into the sense of forgiveness and rest,
Into inheritance with all the blest;
Into communion with Father and Son,
Into the sharing of all that Christ won.

When my body is placed 'neath the sod,
Look up toward Heaven, believe I am there;
My spirit shall have gone back to God,
And to all Heaven is, I am an heir.

In Her Own Words

“On Wednesday, July 28, 1954, I, Sandra Alexia Douglas, was born to mother, Mildred Moore Douglas, and father, Alex Douglas. I attended local public schools here in Jacksonville, FL, a graduate of the February 1972 class of Florida Junior College Adult Center. On September 13, 1971, I gave birth to a beautiful daughter whose name was Katrina Artrice Singleton.

In September 1973, I graduated from the FCCJ Practical Nursing Program. I was employed at University Medical Center on October 1, 1973, and retired from the Duval County Health Department in November 1998, as an L.P.N.

In August 1986, I accepted Jesus as Lord and in July 1996, I became a devout Christian, adamant about serving the LORD.” She was a member of Open Arms Christian Fellowship, Bishop Leofric Thomas, Pastor, under the Tribe of Dan, Dea. Gregory Johnson, Leader.

On October 20, 2020, Sister Douglas made her earthly transition to her heavenly home, forever to be with the Lord.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Alex and Mildred Douglas; daughter, Katrina A, Duncan; and great-granddaughter, Jamayca.

Left to cherish precious memories are her devoted son-in-law, Ronald W. Duncan, Sr.; siblings, Patricia A. Douglas and Ronald L. Douglas; grandchildren, Wade, Rachel and Regina Duncan, Latoria Ivory (Keith), Ronald, Jr., and Ieshia; great grandchildren, Maria, Joshani and Quintez; and a host of other relatives and friends.
