

*Those we love remain with us
For love itself lives on,
And cherished memories never fade
Because a loved one's gone.
Those we love can never be
More than a thought apart,
For as long as there is memory,
They'll live on in the heart.*

Obituary

Charlie Norris, affectionately known as "Uncle Charlie," was born on January 26, 1945, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert and Ruth Adams Norris, in the close-knit Bottom Creekers Neighborhood. The family attended the neighborhood church, Mt. Bethel, as well as the local public schools. Prior to the building of Moncrief Elementary School, one had to catch the school bus for Darnell Cookman, Davis Street, and other schools outside the neighborhood. In spite of it all, Charlie finished senior high school.

Most were not aware, but Charlie's favorite song was by Frank Sinatra, "I Did it My Way," which is really how he lived his life. He was also the best baby-sitter any of us could ever ask for.

At the age of 76 (three score, ten and six), Charlie's journey on earth was completed but he left precious memories. He was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert and Ruth Adams Norris; and sisters, Margaret Norris and Janet Higdon; and sons, Bruce Norris and Eugene Norris.

Memories will be shared by his family: sons, Charlie Norris, Jr., Charlene Norris and Charlie Pressley; daughter, Tijuanna Norris Davis (Isaac); siblings, Betty Dicks, Shuri Norris, Robert Norris, Jr. (Daisy), Billy Norris (Annie), Bobby Norris (Mary), Alfred Norris (Mona), Larry Norris (Linda) and Curtis Norris; fiancé, Yvonne James; grandchildren, Justin Norris, Lachara Norris, Charzetta Norris, Charlie Johnson, Tierra Davis and Tianna Davis; great grands, Sincere Norris and Charmin Johnson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
