A Fallen Limb

Although a limb has fallen from the family tree,
Listen for the still small voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song,
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you;
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest,
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small;
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
Although you may miss me, keep up your chin,
Until the day comes that we're together again."

A LIFE CELEBRATED

On June 19, 1941, in Cedar Bluff, Mississippi, a baby boy, Albert, Jr., was added to the family of Mr. and Mrs. Albert and Gertie B. Orr Johnson, Sr. At the age of 14, he received Christ as his Savior, was baptized and became a member of Pleasant Baptist Church. Albert attended Fannie Carter High School in Okolona, Mississippi, graduating in 1959. Four years later on August 17, 1963, he was wed to the love of his life, Virgie J. Pierce, and they shared life together for 47 years until she passed away on November 19, 2011. They were blessed with two children.

Upon moving to Jacksonville, FL, Albert became employed with the Jacksonville Sheriff's Corrections Department. He also availed himself of several college courses. During this lifetime career, he was promoted to Sergeant, and he served as a mentor to many who crossed his path. Albert retired after over 40 years, but he continued with community involvement and personal endeavors. He was a wonderful father, a jack of all trades, a hard worker, a master chef, involved in real estate, and he especially enjoyed traveling.

Albert was also active in his Church, where he served on Usher Board #3, as a member of the Men's Ministry, a member of District 12, and a member of the Culinary staff.

Brother Albert Johnson, Jr., passed away physically, but his legacy will continue through the many lives that he touched. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Virgie; parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert and Gertie Johnson, Sr.; and siblings, Lizzie Patterson and Affroy Johnson.

Precious memories will be shared by his loving children, Anthony B. Johnson and Lora A. Johnson; Godson, McArthur Johnson, Jr.; sisters, Alberta Banks and Magdalene Robinson; brothers, Ples Davidson and Thomas Davidson; nephew, Darren Banks; in-laws, Olena Moore (Eugene), Perletta Williams and Edna Robinson; and a number of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
