Her Story

On October 27, 1945, Mary Christina Jaudon was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jim and Vashie Jaudon in Brunswick, Georgia. Mary, affectionately called Tina or Tini, and one of eight children, was nurtured in a loving environment. After many years of professional service, Mary retired from the Jacksonville Housing Authority.

Mary's family members shared the following comments: "She loved her family, was beautiful, very outspoken, loving, no fighter, lots of fun, real, strong, opinionated, sweet, caring, and one of a kind. She made the best of everything, and could make you laugh and get you straight all at the same time; she was genuine."

On Tuesday, December 6, 2022, the earthly assignment for Mary Christina Jaudon Smith was completed and she was called home where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest. She was preceded in death by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim and Vashie Jaudon; brothers, Carl and Hardy Jaudon; sisters, Rose Brown, Susie Ann Thornton, Ethel Youman, Evelyn Lemon, and Bernice Campbell; and daughter-in-law, Tanya Mcdougal.

Survivors include sons, Samuel A. Jaudon, Michael V. Mcdougal, Hilbert Mcdougal Jr. (Tracy) and Chaney T. Mcdougal; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
